

Text Types	Theme	Features	Technical Skills	Vocabulary at Expected Standard Y1,2 & 3 Spellings
Term 1
Non chronological report	Ancient Egypt	Title, Introduction , Subheading, Factual information, Fact box/Bullet points,Glossary,Past tense, Third person	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, Apostrophe for possession and contraction. Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	Egypt, Pyramid, Ancient, pyramid, gods, Egyptian life, Tutankhamun's treasure, discovery of the century, Did you know? Infamous/famous Howard Carter, sarcophagus, Canopic jars, mummies, Book of the dead, pharaoh, tombs, hieroglyphics, Rosetta stone, mummification, Egyptian gods and goddesses, river Nile, viziers, merchants, soldiers, slaves, customs, beliefs.
Story Opening	Pirate's treasure	Pirate Words Adjectives Adverbs Alliteration Cliff Hanger	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Speech Marks, Past tense, Question Marks, Conjunctions, Prefixes, Suffixes, Write coherent narratives about experiences of others or fictional.	Treasure, pirates, going about my business, sword, eye patch, wooden leg, island, sand , palm trees, treasure map, x marks the spot, damp wooden sticks, ran wildly, plotted nastily, skipped merrily, built quickly, climbed quickly, fluttering parrot, Captain Long John Silver, Shiver me timbers, beads, diamonds, jewels, gemstones, precious pearls, pouch full of gold coins, treasure chest bursting with priceless pieces of stolen jewellery.
Story in historical setting	Traditional tale of Cinderella - Egyptian	Beginning (describe Setting/Characters), Middle (Problem), Interesting End (Solution), Speech Marks. Action using Effective Verbs and Adverbs,	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Conjunctions, Write simple, coherent narratives about experiences of others or fictional. A mix of sentence structures	Slave girl and nasty sisters, chores such as fetching buckets of water, catching fish, making bread, handwashing clothes, her father went to help build pyramids or was merchant who sold goods, she made pots to sell. Cinderella/Nefertiti or Cleopatra, Godmother/God Anubis, Isis Sand, stones, water from Nile, old boat instead of pumpkin, Cats instead of mice, Servant with message/Vizier with scroll Pharaoh's ball, 12 midnight, glass slipper becomes headdress etc.
Persuasive Advert	New toy shop	Alliterative Adjectives, Catchy Name, Slogan, Rhetorical Question, Bargain, Exaggeration, Persuasive language,	Capital Letters, Spellings, Question Marks, alliteration, adjectives Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	Dream dollhouse, Toys of every type join in with the hype, beautiful Barbie, marvellous magnetic balls, Mega mall, shop till you drop, the most exciting toys in the world, All of your dreams will come true, remarkable, magic, crazy cars, cool mind boggling board games, terrific transforming robots, incredible action figures, perfect cutie ponies, soft baby bears, marvellous miniature figures and their families, super dupe beauty kits and beads, dazzling dinner set complete with knives and forks.
Poetry	Shape poem- Calligrams	In shape of the title Short sentences Repetition Adjectives Alliteration	Powerful verbs and adjectives, repetition and word play, capital letter, commas. Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	Crystal/Ruby/Gem: cool, transparent, precious, collection, carved, priceless, shiny, gleaming, glittering, eye catching, perfect. Furry animal: doe eyes, soft fur, cute paws, fluffy ear, gently manner, sweet, calm and trusting. Star-bright, shining, guiding, appearing, disappearing, wonder, ever present, believing, dreaming, special magical, brilliant.
Poetry	Washing machine /the sea - onomatopoeia	Verses, each line begins with a capital letter, comma usually at the end of each line, onomatopoeia	Powerful verbs and adjectives, repetition and word play, rhyme pattern and sound, couplets, verse, capital letter, commas, onomatopoeia Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	Washing machine: thumps, rattles, bumps, whoosh, whir, coo, chug a lug, lug, swish, swoosh, bish, bosh, blubber, buzzing, drumming, gush, gurgle, humming. Sea: whoosh, swish, hurl, whirl, twirl, swoosh, hush, plash, ripple, rush, splash, thunder, walloping waves.

Instructions	Marvellous medicine	How to make.. title, subheadings, You Will Need List with Bullet Points, Imperative verb, Short Sentences, Handy Hints, Health and Safety advice, chronological order, adverbs.	Capital Letters and Full Stops, contractions and apostrophes with possession. Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	How to make a marvellous medicine, You will need, potion, medicine, ingredients, , first, next, thirdly, after that, In a few minutes, eye of a newt, tail of a rat, pot, wooden spoon, throw, chuck, stir slowly, sprinkle carefully, chant loudly, simmer gently, bring to the boil, mix.
Term 2
Story set in imaginary world	Fantasy	Beginning (describe Setting/Characters), Middle (Problem), Interesting End (Solution), Speech Marks. Action using Effective Verbs and Adverbs	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Conjunctions, Write simple, coherent narratives about experiences of others or fictional. A mix of sentence structures	Setting: fantasy world, yellow brick road, tall towers, strange atmosphere, small houses, tall towers, colourful and bright, carriages, sinister palace Characters: little people, animals dressed as people, speaking dolls, unicorns, centaurs, beautiful fairies, dainty fairies Problem: retrieve ruby, egg, precious stone from creature, witch/witches, monster, sleeping dragon
Diary	Household pet	First Person Time Connectives Personal Feelings Chronological order Past tense	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, A mix of sentence structures	Firstly, Secondly, Early in the morning, After That, Later, As Soon as, Moments Later, Feelings: Bored, Frustrated, Fed up, Sheer Joy, exhilarated, disaster, guests arrived, hats and coats were taken, the cake collapsed, the over stopped working, there was a leak, the food burnt, drinks spilled, the chair leg snapped off, hats went flying off, the roast burnt, the starters arrived later, grand entrance ruined by a fall down the stairs.

Persuasive leaflet	Dessert Parlour	Title Subheadings Adjectives Adverbs Persuasive words/phrases Exaggeration	Capital Letters and Full Stops, Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Spellings, Question Marks, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, alliteration, adjectives	Incredible ice-cream, marvellous mint, creamy, all of your dreams will come true, You have to visit, most amazing, unique, Bargain, scrumptious sundaes, wonderful waffles, melts in your mouth best pancakes in the world, giant muffins, chunky cookies, fruity flap jacks, cram cakes, delicious, sweet, mouth-watering, fabulous, melts in your mouth, simply have to try. Firstly, secondly, thirdly, furthermore, why not? Why miss out? Don't be left out.
Recount based on real events	Real trip to Cadbury's world	First Person, Time Connectives, Personal Feelings, Chronological order, Past tense,	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, A mix of sentence structures	Got on the bus ready for an exciting journey, looked forward to, fastened seat belts, took register, arrived, collected tickets, Bournville talk, tasted delicious chocolate, ride through history of chocolate, information boards, chocolate gifts as we left, packed lunch description, after that, next, later, in the afternoon, 4D show, After lunch, played, fresh air, gift shop, tour, returned to bus, did you know that...?
Term 3
Diary	Victorian	First Person, Time Connectives, Personal Feelings, Chronological order, Past tense Victorian words for this particular unit	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, A mix of sentence structures	Firstly, Secondly, Early in the morning, After That, Later, As Soon as, Moments Later, Feelings: tired, terrified, frightened, Fed up, exhausted, exhilarated, poor Victorian child: factory conditions, mines, chimney sweepers, school, soot, cough, ill, cold, starving, dangerous. Rich Victorian child-nanny, dolls house, read bible, Lady Daisy doll, saying our prayers, children should be seen and not heard, presented to father and mother.
Play	Bullying/Dealing with conflict	Character Semi Colon Dialogue Adverbs in brackets Action in italics/bold/different colour	Capital letters and full stops, colon, question marks, conjunctions. Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction	Bullying, conflict, solution, sad, upset, avoid, horrible, problem, teasing, Adverbs: nastily, loudly, meekly, quietly, noisily, viciously, slowly, roughly Verbs: sobs, kicks, shouts, punches, hits, blocks, trips, throws, grabs, takes, pulls, pushes, cries, scowls, hurts, holds hands up to protect, laughs, runs.
Non chronological report	He-man Shera	Title Introduction Subheading Adjectives Adverbs Past tense Third person	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Coordination and Subordinating Conjunctions, Apostrophe for possession and contraction. Simple organisational devices are used in non-fiction A mix of sentence structures	Appearance/Features: wings, tail, x ray eyes, carries sword and weapon, wears magical medallion, special belt, can jump up to 50 feet high, can run at the speed of lightning etc. Lives: in cave, valley, clouds, mountains, forbidden forest, wild woodlands, protects water of life, golden feather, dragon's eggs, people of Carnia from attack, protects garden of Eden. Super power, hero, villain, captured, evil, flying, transform, x-ray vision, lightning, invisibility, super strength, bravery, daredevil, courageous, sinister, disguise, nemesis, rescue, power, protects ancient book of wisdom
Narrative	Reversal of gender roles in traditional tales	Beginning (describe Setting/Characters), Middle (Problem), Interesting End (Solution), Speech Marks. Action using Effective Verbs and Adverbs,	Capital Letters and Full Stops. Extended Sentences, Commas in Lists, Past tense, Question Marks, Conjunctions, Write simple, coherent narratives about experiences of others or fictional. A mix of sentence structures	Key phrases: Once upon a time, happily ever after Setting: castle, palace, village, magical garden, tall tower, kingdom, dungeon. Characters: King and Queen, rebellious princess, pathetic prince, scared prince who needs saving or protecting or has spell on him. Prince, who paid great attention to his appearance, did very little. Angry giant, Conniving wolf. Problem: find a lost treasure, fight a dragon, complete challenge to win what you want, lost prince, sleeping prince, evil king orders death of prince, Solution: princess rescues prince, saves kingdom

				Grabbed, fought, attacked furiously, protected, flung , jumped swiftly, escaped, trapped.
Poetry	Narrative - My time in year 3 / Kindness	Verses Repetition Short sentences Words or Phrases Key Events from Year 3 OR Kindness Words	Capital letters, commas, Simple organisational devices are used in nn-fiction	Subjects: Maths, maturing, literacy, Egyptians, science, magnets, pe, football, street dance, Trips: place of worship: thoughtful, exciting, fun and memorable trip to Cadbury's World Learning: problem solving, reading, inference, writing: grammar and punctuation, stepping into fantasy worlds, acting, drama, words, vocabulary, Self Growth-trying, believing, challenging myself, achieving, rewards, certificates, Kindness: sweet, caring, trusting, honest, endearing, positive, warm, friendly, likeable, intelligent, supportive, strong, goodness, memorable moments, helpful, defends, protects, mature stands up for, morals, Herrick learning attitude words and character.