

Glossary / Vocabulary ---Science

Year Group	Topic	Vocabulary	Definition
Nursery / Reception	Seasons and How they change	seasons	These changes in weather are broken up into four seasons: summer, autumn, winter and spring.
		autumn	Autumn is the season when warm summer slowly turns to the cold of winter.
		winter	Winter is the coldest season of the year
		Spring	the season between winter and summer
		summer	the season between spring and autumn
Year1	Seasons and how they change	overcast	covered with or darkened by clouds.
		temperature	Temperature is how hot or cold something is.
		sleet	Sleet is liquid water that freezes before it hits the ground. It looks like small bits of ice.
		snow	small white crystals of ice formed directly from the water vapour of the air seasons	This cycle of weather changes is divided into four parts, known as the seasons.