Reading the shortlisted books at home

Frank and Bert: The One With The Missing Biscuits by Chris Naylor-Ballesteros

The Our Best Picture Book shortlisted books are for you and your child to read and enjoy together. So, find a comfortable and quiet place to read the book either to your child, or with them. 😊

The main thing is that you have fun! You can discuss the pictures, enjoy the story, predict what might happen next and use different voices for the characters! Use some of the prompts, questions and activities below to make the most of having this exciting new book at home to share together!

Before you start reading the book together...

- Read the title and author.
- Read the blurb on the back of the book.

During reading...

- Talk about any new words or interesting words.
- How do the characters feel?

After reading...

- What was the story about?
- Why do you think...happened?

Some questions you can ask your child about this book...

- What has gone wrong on Frank and Bert's picnics?
- If you were Bert, what would you have said to Frank when he told the truth?

Praise your child...

- Wow! You really understood that!
- I like how you...

Follow up activities to try at home...

- What is your favourite biscuit and why? Draw yourself eating your favourite type of biscuit!
- Play having a picnic! (Or go on a real picnic!) What will happen during your picnic?!
